Panoramic views of Port Stephens

Set on approximately 35 acres, this magnificent home is propped up on top of a hill, taking in some of the best views Port Stephens has to offer. This huge entertainer's home is almost made insignificant due to the priceless view it offers, which is equal to any east coast property on the market today. The unobstructed views look out across the Karuah River to the west, south over the township of Karuah and the view to east stretches out to Port Stephens waterways. Set high on top of the mountain you will look out over your own semi cleared bushland acreage that extends down towards the waterfront.

Key features include:

- Bedrooms 2, 3 & 4 are all good size and all have built in-robos.
- Carpet to all bedrooms.
- This once in a lifetime property has endless potential for recreational development and
